

“CARD GAME WITH DEALER ACTIVATION”

Abstract of the Disclosure

A variation of Blackjack is played with reference to an optional side bet according to the rules of conventional Blackjack. In a first stage the dealer must activate bonus play. To activate bonus play the dealer's face-up card must be a two, three, four, five, or six. In a second stage a player must receive a qualifying hand on the first two cards dealt. A qualifying hand is any soft or hard seventeen, soft or hard eighteen, soft or hard nineteen, soft or hard twenty, Blackjack, nine, ten or eleven. Any player who posted a side bet with the dealer's face-up card being two through six in conjunction with the player's hand being any seventeen through twenty, Blackjack, nine, ten or eleven wins and will be awarded a bonus payout.
